PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Mr. Jerome N. Meyer
Senate Record Clerk
Wisconsin State Senate
State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin

It is with genuine sorrow that I learned of the passing of Larry Larsen, Chief Clerk of the Wisconsin State Senate.

The sad news of his death brings to my mind the many fine hours all of us were permitted to share with him in the Senate.

Larry enjoyed a deep pride in his work and contribution to Wisconsin government and its legislative processes. Who can forget his energetic and contagious enthusiasm for each day's work?

I particularly treasure the recollections of the ten years Larry and I rode back and forth to Madison from our hometown of Racine. Often, in unguarded moments, as we watched the panoramic landscape of Wisconsin slide past us during our rides, he would reveal the philosophical outlook of his nature. To say I enjoyed Larry Larsen's friendship and companionship would be an understatement.

I join my ex-colleagues in offering his wife my sincerest sympathy in her loss.

I add, too, that I am richer for having known Larry Larsen. He gave me a fortune in friendship.

LYNN E. STALBAUM, M. C.

March 4, 1965.

The foregoing communication was ordered spread upon the journal, upon motion of Senator Knowles, with unanimous consent.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [March 9, 1965]

The State of Wisconsin
Legislative Reference Bureau
State Capitol
Madison, Wis. 53702

Honorable Jerome N. Meyer
Acting Chief Clerk of the Senate

Dear Mr. Meyer:

The highest drafting number assigned prior to the Joint Rule 18 deadline of 4:30 p.m. on the 51st Calendar Day of the Session (Friday, March 5, 1965) was drafting number LRB-2835.

Any proposal carrying this or a lower LRB number may be introduced at any time during the 1965 Session by an individual member or committee, as long as the member or committee authorizing the draft is one of the "authors" of the proposal when it is formally introduced in the legislature.

It is my understanding that the Joint Rule 18 deadline applies equally to bills, joint resolutions or resolutions except those privileged, but that it does not apply to amendments or substitute amendments.

As soon as we can complete this task, we will send you a list showing the name of each requestor and the drafting numbers assigned to each prior to the deadline.

Sincerely yours,

H. RUPERT THEOBALD,

March 8, 1965.
